I'M GOING BACK TO MY BROKER AND DEMANDING MY MONEY BACK!

YOU SOLD ME A HAUNTED BEACH! AS HAWAII'S ONE-TIME TOP CHAMPION SURFER, YOU SHOULD HAVE KNOWN ABOUT HEEWANU DRIVING OFF THE TOURISTS!

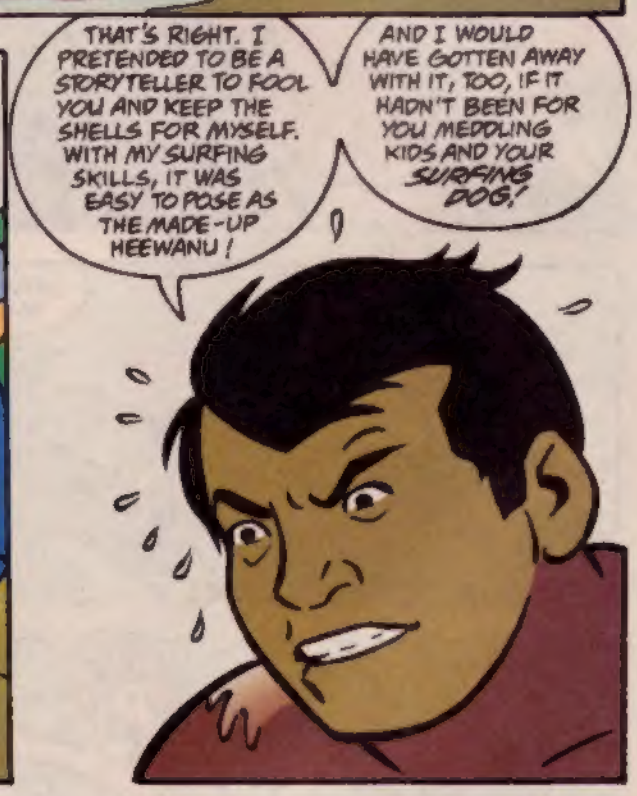
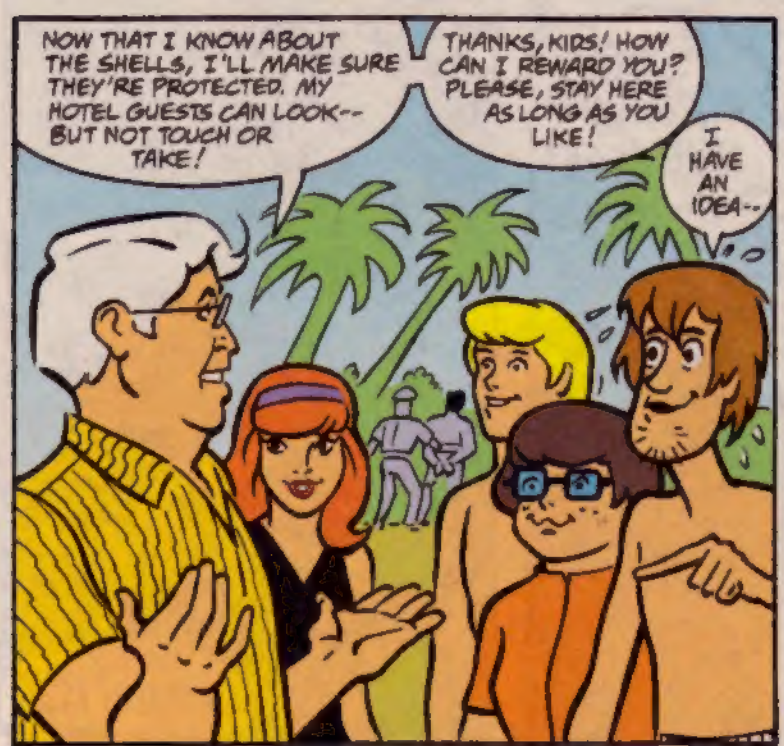
GASP! IT'S MY BROKER, THE CHAMPION SURFER! AND--THE STORYTELLER?!
AND WHOLESALE SHELL SALESMAN! HE WAS ILLEGALLY SMUGGLING RARE AND ENDANGERED SHELL SPECIES OFF YOUR PROPERTY TO SELL!
THAT'S WHY HE WANTED TO SELL YOU THIS PROPERTY AND THEN DRIVE YOU AWAY!



THAT'S RIGHT. I PRETENDED TO BE A STORYTELLER TO FOOL YOU AND KEEP THE SHELLS FOR MYSELF. WITH MY SURFING SKILLS, IT WAS EASY TO POSE AS THE MADE-UP HEEWANU!
AND I WOULD HAVE GOTTEN AWAY WITH IT, TOO, IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR YOU MEDDLING KIDS AND YOUR SURFING DOG!



NOW THAT I KNOW ABOUT THE SHELLS, I'LL MAKE SURE THEY'RE PROTECTED. MY HOTEL GUESTS CAN LOOK--BUT NOT TOUCH OR TAKE!
THANKS, KIDS! HOW CAN I REWARD YOU? PLEASE, STAY HERE AS LONG AS YOU LIKE!

SCOOBY'S MYSTERY MAIL

Welcome to another installment of Scooby's Mystery Mail! This is where fans like yourself get to write in and tell us how much you love Scooby-Doo and his crime-solving friends. And boy, do we love reading about how you love reading SCOOBY-DOO! Did you enjoy this latest issue? Why not write in and share your thoughts with us?

Eric Blatecky
Brewster, Wash.

Dear Scooby-Doo,

My mom helped me write this, and we have a question. My mom says Scooby-Doo likes baked potatoes, and I say he doesn't. Which is it?

Well, Eric, that question's been debated among Scooby scholars for years over a hot spud with butter. Personally, I think Scooby likes anything edible—including Brussels sprouts, asparagus, and broccoli!

Dear Scooby and Shaggy,

I think you guys are so cool. You guys talk cool, and everything about you guys is cool.

I have to ask you two something. Is it fun hanging out with the gang and solving mysteries?

Art by: Brooke Berrens
Saint Cloud, Minn.

Fun? You bet! Solving mysteries is a great way to make friends, eat lots of great food and still manage to stay in shape!

Dear DC Comics,

SCOOBY-DOO is my favorite comic you make. I really like the Mystery Machine and when Scooby and Shaggy eat a lot and get scared. But why does Fred always wear that thing around his neck?

Don't you think that Fred's collar adds to the overall humor, in a spiffy kind of way?

Henry Manfranator
Parsippany, N.J.

Dear Mystery Inc.:

I love your shows, and I love your comic book adventures even more. It's really funny when Scooby tries to talk. Since dogs can't really talk, is Scooby-Doo a real dog? Or is he just a really big puppet?

Of course Scooby-Doo is a real dog! Or at least a real cartoon dog. If Scooby was actually a puppet you'd probably be able to see some sort of strings attached to him. (Not that there's anything wrong with being a puppet!)

Ken Alton
Wibleton, N.Y.

Dear DC:

Are there going to be any issues of SCOOBY-DOO where the gang doesn't solve a mystery? Maybe they could join the circus because Scooby and Shaggy are such clowns! Just a suggestion to give the gang a break.

That's a great idea, Ken! The circus would be a great place for a mystery...er, I mean story.

But I guess when you call your company Mystery Inc., trouble follows you wherever you go.

NEXT ISSUE:

C'mon, let's party! Scooby gets funky with a freaky Phantom when the gang visits the city's coolest haunted nightclub! Plus Scoob takes a trip to an ancient Irish castle haunted by two spooky spectres!

This issue's cover was drawn by Joe Staton, inked by Andrew Pepoy, and colored by Paul Becton. Hang ten, guys!
